'Sweet' chance for Isle jeweler

Gwen Stefani has been spotted wearing
Philip Rickard's

Hawaiian heirloom bracelets. Last year she began putting the bracelets on her runway models. This year she took it a step further: Stefani stopped in at Rickard's Royal Hawaiian Shopping Center factory during her "The Sweet Escape" tour in August and asked him to create gold pieces decorated with enameled L.A.M.B. logos that reflect the mod theme of her spring line. She worked with Rickard to produce pieces for her L.A.M.B. Spring 2008 fashion show.
