

Save up to 75% on Hawaii

Vacations To Go offers huge discounts on Hawaii cruises.
VacationsToGo.com

Hawaii All Inclusive

Inclusive: Activities, Breakfasts, Dinners, Flights, Hawaii Hotel, Trans
www.All-Inclusive-Hawaii.com

Hawaii Cruise Specials

Compare Rates on Hawaii Cruises. Find Great Deals - Search Now!
www.BookingBuddy.com

The Perfect Hawaii Cruise

All Inclusive Hawaii Cruise Package Discount Rates - Book A Trip Today!
www.ymtvacations.com

Ads by Google

Bookmark or Share This Article:

If you love to shop, here s some must see places to visit while you re in Hawaii.

Hilo Hattie s World famous Hawaiian store where you can buy high quality clothing and souvenirs—to keep Hawaii close to you always.

Ala Moana Center This mall has over 200 shops and is the largest open air shopping center in the U.S. This place has everything and you ll find very beautiful merchandise. The food court is big and offers a wide variety of great eats.

Aloha Stadium Swap Meet This is the best bargain in Hawaii. For an entrance fee of 50 cents, you can find tons of bargains on all kinds of goods. It s open on Wednesdays, Saturdays, and Sundays. Also, it can get a bit hot, so dress appropriately.

Royal Hawaiian Shopping Center This shopping center is right in front of the Pink Palace Hotel. You ll find boutiques, places to buy t-shirts and souvenirs, restaurants, and a post office.

DFS Galleries (DFS Galleria) This is a great place to shop for U.S. and foreign tourists. You can find designer goods and cosmetics with no sales tax. While it s designed mainly for overseas visitors, U.S. visitors can shop on the first couple of floors.

Chinatown Here s a place where you can find inexpensive goods and foodstuffs like pastries, exotic fruits and fresh fish. The Hing Mau Store is highly recommended. The area also has a Costco and Sam s Club.

Maui Divers Jewelry Design Center They offer a free tour where you can learn about the history of this company and how they make coral jewelry. Of course, you can also buy

Looking For Cheap Vacations?

...often associated with camping out and so most of the time the family is hesitant to even attempt it even if it will save them money. However, camping really does not have to be that bad and if anything it ...

All Inclusive Family Vacations

...family vacation packages. A number of vacation homes are